Event Description:

Arts & Crafts club, SVCE with the support from the department of English, organized one day workshop on “Creative Painting and Pencil Sketching” to promote interest and creativity and develop artistic skills in painting and pencil sketching among students. The workshop started with prayer song and lighting the lamp by the dignitaries. Guest of honor Dr. K. Suneetha Reddy, Head, Department of English explained the value and importance of painting. The chief guest of the program Dr. N. Sudhakar Reddy, Principal, SV College of Engineering shared his experience that he got first prize for his painting during his schooling. He also motivated the students to develop techniques in painting.

The resource person Mr. N. Yugesh, Artist & Founder, Eesha fine Arts Studio, Tirupati showcased the self satisfaction and the recognition we get through the art of painting. All the club members participated in the workshop. Fevicryl, acrylic paint boxes and brushes were distributed to all the participants. Mr. Yugesh explained the techniques in painting and shading while drawing on tripod and projecting pictures on screen in the morning session. He explained the techniques to be followed in pencil sketch in the afternoon session. Students enjoyed a lot and made the workshop a grand success. Principal, Dr. N. Sudhakar Reddy distributed the prizes to the best performers in the end of the session.
