Event Description:

Arts & Crafts club, SVCE with the support from department of English, organized one day seminar on “Human Values and Professional Ethics”. The programme started with lighting the lamp and prayer song. Principal Dr. N. Sudhakar Reddy encouraged the students to utilize the opportunity to know the importance of human values and professional ethics. The Chief Guest Mr. M. Harinath started the session explaining about the life cycle since infancy to the end of the life; how the way of thinking get changes; the impact of surroundings and hereditary. He detailed that human values are the ideals or principles that help in making judgment of what is more important besides referring to our view point that determines our behavior on certain situations. The human values are individual behavioral assets those could be used to measure persons achievements. Basic inherent human values give idea about kindness, sympathy, loyalty, love, peace, honesty, truth that influences or increases goodness and nature of human being in the society. The human values cherish and help to understand the motivation, attitude and behavior to interpret right or wrong. It also provides the rules to understand humanity and institution.

Detailing about professional ethics; he emphasized both human values and professional ethics are complementary to each other; they are one of the branches of philosophy, especially moral philosophy. Both are important in every sphere. The professional ethics are uniform rules those provide moral perspective for deciding how to act and for analyzing issues. The human values convey the personal conviction and ethics give the principles and standards of conduct about moral duties in an organization. The seminar inspired the students in cultivating ethics and values. Principal, Dr. N. Sudhakar Reddy honored the Chief Guest felicitating with shawl and memento.
